

Suggested Links:

Starfall.com	Starfall.com is a free online resource that teaches children to read and inspire in them a love for learning. The resources have read-aloud capability, enabling children's speaking, reading and writing vocabulary to grow as they explore the wealth of resources. http://www.starfall.com/
National Library Board (NLB) website	Access National Library Board (NLB) website for its NLB catalogue and a list of digital resources for primary school students. Students can access eReads, a portal with thousands of digital books available for preview or loan. http://www.nlb.gov.sg/
Scholastic	Scholastic is browser-based platform that students can access at home with an Internet connection. Available to Primary 1 to 3 students, this platform allows students to choose digital books from an extensive list and to read them at their own pace. http://tinyurl.com/yumin123456
Epic!	Epic! is a digital library and e-reader for books and videos for children, more of which are added weekly. Parents can create accounts and have their children read from this depository of books. https://www.getepic.com/
Online Dictionary	Reputable online dictionaries can be used to find the meanings of new words. https://dictionary.cambridge.org/